Description

J41 One-Tonner / Offshore Racing Yacht

Winner of the Newport–Bermuda Race

> Owners comments: She is easy to sail shorthanded

Highlights

- John Kolius' own One-Tonner campaign yacht, Newport–Bermuda Race winner
- Proven offshore racing pedigree
- Excellent shorthanded sailing characteristics
- Nice sail inventory
- Full B&G electronics and Raymarine autopilot
- Recently overhauled Yanmar 3GM30
- Significant rigging, hull and systems work completed in 2024–2026
- Offshore liferaft and AIS transponder
- New dinghy, generator, ground tackle and safety equipment
- Sleeps 8

Original IOR Design

The rudder, keel, and hull form have never been modified from the original IOR configuration. She therefore retains the classic design and sailing characteristics intended by the original designers, without later modifications such as a bulb keel.

She also has a current ORC Club certificate.
