Owners comments

We bought this Farr 45 in 2014 and sailed hospitality for SCA until end of VOR summer of 2015. They were given a major deck refit by SCA in 2013 and are still in good condition. We have sailed the Fastnet with them both in 2015 and 2017.

Some of the SCA sails are still with the inventory.

We have a new main and a J2 for racing from Hagoort Sails in 2015 and a new J3 this summer from One sails (not yet on inventory list). Sails will be no problem for at least another two seasons of racing.

Hull is very strong and in good condition, same as the rig and mast. New anti fouling just before Fastnet.

Rigging

- Sparcraft Carbon mast and boom
- rod rigging
- spi pole carbon

Sails

- Doyle: main, J2, J3, are all not in good condition, but still suitable for delivery. J4 is good
- North Sails: main, J2, J3, Spinnaker S2 reasonable condition with repair, but all in reasonable condition
- Trysail, Stormjib are not much used and good
- Two set of carbon diaphragm sails for offshore sailing with double taffeta: 1 main and all purpose (2/3) jib (one season used) Hagoort reasonable condition, 1 main and all purpose (2/3) jib (multiple seasons used) Hagoort poor condition but good for
