- Opposite the galley is a proper nav station, with a dedicated forward-facing seat, good stowage space and ample room to mount instruments.
- Aft of the chart table is an all-moulded heads compartment with shower, toilet and sink.
- The forecabin is a good size. It has a very long double berth and there's good stowage in lockers either side of the changing area.
- The aft cabin has less stowage and room to stand up, but the berth itself is larger — it's 170cm wide at its head, although overhead clearance between the berth and the cockpit sole is somewhat less than that of the forecabin.
- Head with hower, sink, toilet and holding tank

Galley

L-shaped galley

- two-burner gas cooker with oven
- decent crockery stowage
- a capacious fridge
- single sink with pressurised hot and cold water supply

Deck and Cockpit

- The cockpit is relatively wide with a shallow cockpit locker to port, above the aft cabin suitable for ropes, smaller fenders and the like and also houses the gas locker.
- A larger locker to starboard has ample space for the paraphernalia and houses the holding tank.

Viewing Arrangements

Due to the corona crisis and the varying locations of our yachts, we offer viewings of yachts for sale anywhere in the world from the comfort of your own home. From live walk-throughs using tools such as WhatsApp, Facetime or Zoom you can literally zoom in to every corner and check out every detail of the decklayout, interior configuration, rig and the engine room.

During these guided tours, together with one of our brokers there is the opportunity to ask our brokers all questions you have as when you make a real-life visit.

Together with our specifications, this package will give you a realistic impression of the volume, layout and condition of the yacht and equipment.

After an online guided tour together with the package of information at hand, you can decide if you like to see the yacht, or wish to send a surveyor to check the yacht. We hope to see you soon online or in real life for a visit on the yacht of your dreams.
